Senate Resolution #7
2015-16
Greeks Going Green

WHEREAS, it is the Environmental Sustainability Committee’s (ESC) goal to educate UNL students about sustainability; and,

WHEREAS, approximately 17% of the current student body is involved in Greek organizations through the Panhellenic Association (PHA), Interfraternity Council (IFC), Multicultural Greek Council (MGC), and the National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC) holding a significant influence over the general population of students; and,

WHEREAS, this project aims to involve the University’s Greek community in sustainability efforts within their chapters; and,

WHEREAS, we will work to implement a representative in each chapter that will inform chapter members of sustainability programs and efforts; and,

WHEREAS, this project will evaluate chapter houses on their individual sustainability efforts and work to increase efforts that foster a more environmentally friendly atmosphere; and,

WHEREAS, this project will audit chapter houses in the spring semester and provide a rating system based on the their individual sustainability efforts in order to compare progress in the second year of the project;

THEREFORE LET IT BE RESOLVED, that ASUN support ESC’s collaboration with Greek Affairs, PHA, IFC, MGC, and NPHC in order to effectively increase awareness of and participation in sustainability efforts within the Greek system on the University of Nebraska- Lincoln’s campus.
