Government Bill #19
2015-16
GLC Directive – Support of LB858 UNL Facilities

WHEREAS, the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, in order to better educate and reduce risk for the student body, must provide adequate and up-to-date facilities, and;

WHEREAS, the Board of Regents have determined that Nebraska Hall, the Scott Engineering Center, Mabel Lee Hall, Henzlik Hall, the Food Industry Complex, the College of Business Administration, and Hamilton Hall, are all in need of major renovations, and;

WHEREAS, the Board of Regents does not have the budget to undergo such renovations at this time without the aid of the state, and;

WHEREAS, LB858 would provide up to $242 million to help with renovations at all university system campuses,

THEREFORE LET IT BE RESOLVED THAT, ASUN gives the Government Liaison Committee permission to lobby on behalf of the University in favor of LB858.
