Students should be free, individually or collectively, to express their views on issues of institutional policy and on matters of general interest to the student population. The students should have clearly defined means to participate equitably in the formulation of institutional

RP-5.6 Campus Speaker Policy

RP-5.6.1 Sponsorship of Speakers with Student Fees

The student programming organizations administering the speakers programs on each campus shall abide by the following guidelines in sponsoring speakers on campus with the use of student fees:

1. The purpose of a speakers program is to advance the general educational mission of the University by putting before the University community a broad range of ideas on a variety of contexts and is not to advance any particular viewpoint.

2. In deciding how to allocate limited funds for campus speakers, a student organization may consider (a) the extent to which the speaker’s intended message advances the educational mission of the University; (b) the overall breadth of topics covered by speakers on campus in the year in which the speaker would speak and the three prior academic years, with the goal of covering a broad range of topics; (c) if applicable, the academic reputation of the speaker and the quality of the speaker’s academic or other published work; (d) the level of student interest in having the speaker come to campus; (e) the University’s ability to ensure the safety of the speaker, students, and other persons; (f) any potential for damage to property; and (g) the cost of bringing the speaker to campus. The student organization may not consider the speaker’s point of view on any issue in deciding whether or not to bring the speaker to campus and must comply with all applicable constitutional requirements.

3. The student government of each University campus shall develop and implement policies and procedures that (a) ensure compliance with this Policy; (b) set forth other written criteria not inconsistent with this Policy for the allocation of student activity fees to pay for speakers; (c) require the creation and preservation of a verbatim record of student fee funding deliberations by student organizations; (d) require that the reasons for the grant or denial of a funding request be made in writing; (e) provide a mechanism for avoiding conflicts of interest in student fee funding decisions; and (f) establish an appeal process in cases where it is alleged that a funding decision was not made in a viewpoint-neutral manner, including a final appeal to the campus Chancellor.

4. Student programming organizations shall organize internal committees with ongoing responsibility to make student fee funding decisions in compliance with this Policy and applicable law.

5. In considering an appeal of a student organization’s funding decision, the person or body deciding the appeal may weigh all the factors in RP-5.6.1.2 as though the consideration of the question had come before it in the first instance and shall resolve the appeal in accordance with this Policy.
6. All speaker programs, regardless of the viewpoint of the speaker, will be administered in the same way.

7. All students are encouraged to join their programming groups and/or give their input to the speaker selection on their campus.

1) Said authorization may only be obtained through a referendum conducted among the body of students on a particular campus eligible to vote in student government elections on that campus, in which one or more of the following three questions shall be explicitly posed:
