Executive Reports

President Wilkins: Inauguration is April 15th at 7:30pm. Come and celebrate what we have done and what is to come! If you know someone who is filling your role, consider reaching out to them just for a friendly welcome. Uber has been so popular, which is great! However, we have already gotten closer than expected to our $100,000 limit. So, Uber has provided us with $50,000! $25,000 for the remainder of this semester and $25,000 for next semester.

IVP Morgan: ASUN Elections close this evening at 8pm. Results will be posted directly outside of the ASUN Office. Inauguration will highlight the ASUN Senator of the Year Award, which is voted on by current senators. Today will start nominations, and next week nominees will be voted on. Nominees are:

Senator Chism

Senator Ain

Senator Cherek

Senator Hyseni

EVP Jalali: No report.

Speaker Beasley: Just working on a lot of transitional tasks.

Appointments Board Basi: No report.

Executive Operations Karki: Senate bonding will follow Senate next week!

FCLA Directors Morgan and Ringenburg: The FCLA Philanthropy will be a pickleball tournament on April 22nd from 4pm to 7pm. Please participate! All proceeds will go to Husker Pantry.

GLC Chair Bodlak: Nebraska League of Women Voters is a part of tomorrow's Lunch and Learn. While in D.C., GLC and Executives were able to connect with other schools and Hill representatives.

ELP Chairs Greir and Mercer: Earthstock planning! Block Party will be April 22nd and the Music Festival will be April 24th.

GSC Chair Monnarez: No report. Not present.

Graduate Assembly President Jemkur: No report. Not present.

Committee Reports

Academics: Working on projects to transition into next year's committee.

Campus Life and Safety: End of year report and transition documents have been completed. Look out for a Nebraska Today article about the Run, Hide, Fight video.

Committee for Fee Allocation: No report.

Communications: No report.

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion: Chapters will be Thursday at 5pm.

Environmental Sustainability: Upcoming bill!

Sexual Misconduct Prevention: Voices of Hope Donation Drive is still going on outside of the ASUN Office. Doing transitional work for the next SMP Chair. CARE is approaching their biggest event, "What Were You Wearing?" and is looking for volunteers. Look out for sign-ups on Slack.

Student Services: End of year report and transition documents have been completed. Unfinished projects are being worked into phases.

Unfinished Business

Government Bill #33

Recognition of International Dark Sky Week

Authored by Freshmen Campus Leadership Associate Zhyar

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln is a state leader in environmental sustainability, and light pollution is a growing issue that negatively impacts human health, wildlife, and the visibility of the night sky. This bill requests ASUN recognition and support for International Dark Sky Week during the week of Monday, April 13, 2026, through Monday, April 20, 2026.

Senator Cherek asked a clarifying question.

Senator Ain asked a clarifying question.

Senator Luthi asked a clarifying question.

Senator Haupt asked a clarifying question.

Senator Yagub expressed deep support for the bill and the author.

Senator Richards expressed support for the bill.

Freshmen Campus Leadership Associate Zhyar closed on the bill and asked for support.

Announcements

Senator Vasquez highlighted the DEI Committee's Women's History Month event tomorrow.

Senator Richards will be playing at the Earthstock Music Festival on April 24th!

Speaker Beasley shared the Senator Fun Fact.

Adjournment

The meeting was adjourned at 7:03 PM. The next regular meeting will be held on 04/08/2026 at 6:30 PM in the Platte River Room.
